

TERMS OF USE

The Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable (TMTR) Discussion Board is meant to be a place where we can gather and exchange information and views about matters important to the organization and to further TMTR's mission and goals. It is vital that you read and adhere to the standards listed below. Thank you. The Administrators

1. We welcome new participants to our Discussion Board for a limited amount of time and a limited amount of postings. However, we want to grow our community, and encourage you to join Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable (TMTR). You can do so by going to the TMTR website and clicking on one of the links to pay dues.

2. Please be aware that expressions of emotion and humor can be misinterpreted by readers due to the inability to hear voice inflection or to see facial expressions on online forums.

3. We encourage the open and healthy debate of issues and expression of opinion, but as stated above, obscene, profane, or abusive language, personal attacks, or antagonistic behavior will NOT be tolerated.

4. No commercial solicitation or solicitation for trainings or events of other organizations are allowed. The purpose of the TMTR Discussion Board is to further the mission and goals of Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable and not of individuals, other organizations, or businesses.

5. By posting any personal information on this site you are doing so with the knowledge that anyone can access and use the information. You are posting at your own risk. TMTR can assume no responsibility for the use/abuse of information you choose to post in a forum.

6. Emails to You by Administrators: By registering for this Discussion Board you give the Administrators and Forum Moderators permission to send you emails regarding: Changes and other issues related to the Discussion Board, your participation or behavior on the Discussion Board, and other matters relevant to the Discussion Board.

7. Enforcement of Standards: By registering for this Discussion Board you give the Administrators and Forum Moderators permission to enforce these Standards by removing or editing posts that violate the Standards, and in extreme instances to remove you as a participant in the Discussion Board.

8. USERNAME: The Administrator reserves the right to change usernames.

9. We reserve the exclusive right to block access to this forum for anyone who chooses not to abide by the policies listed above and agreed to upon registration on the TMTR Discussion Board.
